CHARITÉ
UNIVERSITÄTSMEDIZIN BERLIN

Dieter Scheffner Fachzentrum

Translation of Certificate

Dr. rer. nat. Matthias König has successfully completed the interprofessional qualification program

Digital Health Professions Educator

from 20.06.2024 to 26.06.2025 comprising 200 teaching units (TU) of 45 minutes each,

The program is accredited by the Medical Didactic Network in Germany as MQ II (Medical Didactic Qualification Level 2).

Contents of the course

Module I - Basics - 60 units

- Practice- and competence-oriented learning, teaching & assessment at the Charité
- Basics of Pedagogy & constructive alignment
- Teaching & learning methods / lesson planning
- Didactical principles and preventive strategies
- Peer learning through observation, feedback, counselling & microteaching
- Introduction to transdisciplinary and interprofessional teaching and learning
- Introduction to blended learning & online teaching
- Basic media production & Educational Technology

Module II - Structure - 60 units

- Digital content-creation teaching & learning I
- Digital content-creation teaching & learning II
- Online & hybrid teaching & learning formats, events & learning approaches
- Ethics and inclusive accessibility in eLearning
- Implementation of an online microteaching & Cooperative Online Internat. Learning (COIL)
- Formative feedback and assessment
- Artificial intelligence, Neurodidactics & Humanizing Online Learning
- Introduction to instructional media design
- Project planning Module III

Module III - Large-scale digital teaching project - 80 units

- Individual focus & specialisation via digital teaching project
- Additional external practice workshops
- Journal Clubs / Work-in-Progress

Lecturers: Martin Lehmann, Dr. Marwa Schumann, Florian Behringer, Sandra Buron, Wibke Hollweg, Dr. Ronja Behrend

Berlin, 26.06.2025

Signature
Univ.-Prof. Dr. Harm Peters
Leiter Dieter Scheffner Fachzentrum

Signature
Prodekan/in für Studium und Lehre